HEAD TO THE MOUNTAINS

A Winter Getaway in Beaver Creek

By Lexi Reich

This holiday season, a picture-perfect mountain escape awaits in Beaver Creek, Colorado. Nestled at 8,000 feet, this unique alpine village is only a two-hour drive from Denver and offers world-class skiing, fine dining and breathtaking views.

Beaver Creek is an exclusive mountain town with a gated entrance. The charming village boasts character and history in harmony with its premium lodging experiences. For an authentic luxury accommodation, book a room at Beaver Creek Lodge, located at the foot of Beaver Creek Mountain. As an Autograph Collection hotel, the dreamy property is home to an art gallery with a distinct Bohemian spirit that immerses guests in original works of art from local and international artists.

ESCAPE

Travelers are offered champagne at check-in to enjoy in the comfort of their amenity-filled suite or in the hotel's various cozy nooks and fireplaces. Rooms are complete with plush bedding, signature bathrobes and more. A heated pool and hot tub, wellness center with free weights and cardio machines, a sauna and steam recharge room, game room and ski equipment rentals are all available on site. A fit for friends, couples or the whole family, Beaver Creek Lodge is an ideal home base to explore all Beaver Creek has to offer.

Steps away from Beaver Creek Lodge, Beaver Creek Village is home to great shopping and upscale restaurants. There is a balanced mix of curated fashion boutiques, high-end sports apparel, jewelry stores, art galleries and more. The best part is it's pedestrians only, creating a tranquil ambiance.

Located inside Beaver Creek Lodge, Alpine + Antlers offers American classics with an artful twist. The space feels like a warm reprieve and offers craft cocktails and an impressive food lineup filled with dishes like the Pecan Muhammara Dip and Rocky Mountain Red Trout. For the Medi-terrestrial seeker, Citrea serves dishes with fresh and local ingredients and is less than a five-minute walk from Beaver Creek Lodge. Its patio faces Beaver Creek Village's ice rink, making it an ideal spot to après. Be sure to order the hummus and a glass from their abundant wine list.

It's no secret Beaver Creek is an elevated getaway — when looking at both altitude and luxury. The quaint, mountaintop village features an array of inspired experiences whether you're looking to get your ski or snowboard on at Beaver Creek Resort or sit back and enjoy the view. Whichever adventure you chose, Beaver Creek offers an opportunity to rejoice in a new kind of mountain experience.

Beaver Creek Lodge is located at 26 Avondale Lane, Beaver Creek, CO.
